

Asymmetric Solutions Integrated Combatives System (AS-I.C.S.)

AS-I.C.S. is a multi-domain close range combat system that covers multiple facets of fighting. From the fundamental movements of fighting, to incorporating Personal Protection into mission-oriented objectives, AS-I.C.S. combines multiple combat styles to produce a simple set of tools that can be used in critical situations without hesitation. The AS-I.C.S. instructor cadre are also certified Special Operations Combatives Program (SOCP) instructors.

The training is very tough, but conducted in a manner to which the operator can go to work the next day without injury
